COUNCILMEN SELMI—TWESTEN AND SUNDERMANN PLAN AND SUPPORT ISSUES OF LOCAL DEVELOPMENT

Library, Recreation, Street Improvements, Playgrounds Are Major Factors

The Program for Progress, a definite plan sponsored by Councilmen Selmi, Sundermann and Twesten, is promoting healthy growth and steady development in Daly City.

LIBRARY

For several years there has been an acute need in Daly City for additional library space. A new library was listed as one of the first considerations on the Program for Progress and at this time construction work is already well under way on Mission street in carrying out the project.

RECREATION

In response to plans submitted and a request from Mayor Selmi, supported by Councilmen Sundermann and Twesten, to establish a federal recreation program for Daly City, there is at present time a trained staff of nearly 20 men and women who are arranging recreational and social activities for children, young people and adults. In addition to the many fold values of supervised recreation and leisure time activities in the community, the project brings Daly City a federal payroll of approximately $1200 per month.

PARKS

Development of parks and playgrounds have been gradual yet steady in Daly City. Vista Grande Park is now graded to three levels. The upper level has been macademized and playground equipment has been installed. Tennis courts, ball

3 CANDIDATES MEN OF PROVEN GREAT ABILITY

Selmi, Sundermann, Twesten Give Unlimited Time In Civic Welfare

Citizens and friends of Daly City point with pride to the personal accomplishments of Mayor Paul G. Selmi, Councilman Henry Sundermann and Councilman Julius Twesten. These three incumbent candidates have given generously of their time and energy that Daly City might grow and develop—that citizens here might enjoy greater security and happiness.

These three men are modest in self praise of their accomplishments in civic welfare. With humble dignity The Record takes extreme pleasure in publishing only a few of the past activities of these efficient public servants.

COUNCILMAN PAUL G.

SELMI

Councilman Paul G. Selmi is a native of Daly City. He was educated in local schools. Hardly out of his teens Selmi displayed genuine interest in the welfare of Daly City by joining the fire department, where his promotion was extremely rapid. From fireman to fire commissioner, he went from fire commissioner to chairman of the Board of Fire Commissioners, then on to the most honored position that any man can hold in the excellent fire organizations of Daly City, namely, president of the Veteran Firemen's Association.

Always a leader in moves for social improvement, Councilman Selmi was chairman of the NRA units for Daly City, Colma and Lawndale. He organized the Daly City unit of the Townsend Club.

Only three years a member of the Daly City Board of Councilmen, Paul G. Selmi made such an outstanding record of accomplishment and displayed such a great leadership ability that he was chosen mayor of the city. Under his leadreship progress has been made in Daly City in a most efficient and orderly fashion.

Councilman Paul G. Selmi is a clean cut young man, who has the respect of all who know him and whose ability and honesty is unquestioned.

COUNCILMAN HENRY

SUNDERMANN

Councilman Henry Sundermann is a pioneer resident of Daly City. He came here in 1905.

Mr. Sundermann has an excellent record of activity and responsibility in the Daly City Fire Department. Shortly after coming to this community he became a member of the department. Rapid promotions took him to the top position of responsibility, that of fire chief. He is also a charter member of the Daly City Firemen's Association.

A comrade and ambitious worker among men who have been in the service of this county, Henry Sundermann holds the distinguished position of an honorary member in the V. F. W.

Mr. Sundermann now sits on the Daly City Board of Councilmen as chairman of the Water and Light and Library Committees. Daly City has a water department which is second to none in efficiency, and water rates here are lower than rates in San Francisco. It is due, largely, to the efforts of Mr. Sundermann, as chairman of the Library Committee, that a new library building is now being constructed on Mission street.

Councilman Henry Sundermann is an efficient, painstaking and deliberate official who has made an enviable record in public office.

COUNCILMAN JULIUS

TWESTEN

Julius Twesten has been a resident of Daly City since 1920. Mr. Twesten, like Mr. Selmi and Mr. Sundermann,

Two Berkeley, Cal., Women Discovered Brutally Murdered

Discovered semi-nude and brutally murdered, the bodies of Mrs. Hazel Frome, 46, and her daughter, Nancy, 23, of Berkeley, Cal., were recently taken to El Paso, Tex., from near Van Horn, Tex., scene of crime. According to doctors who performed autopsy, both women had been subjected to "terrible torture." Authorities discovered Nancy had been shot with a .32 caliber bullet, while her mother had been shot with a .45 caliber bullet. The crime was judged to have been committed about five days before the finding of the bodies. Photo shows Mr. and Mrs. Weston Frome with their daughter, Nancy (in cap and gown), at her graduation from University of California. Mrs. Frome and Nancy were motoring from California to visit Mrs. Benjamin McMakin, formerly Mada Frome, in South Carolina.

SALOON BRAWL OVER ELECTION ARGUMENT HEAT

Versions Of Participants Differ As To Details Of Altercation

Bayshore City politics took on a New "hot," early this week, when Claude C. Higgins, former chief of police there, is alleged to have sought to clinch an election argument by firing two shots from a shotgun in a tavern, where the argument took place.

It is asserted that during the heat of the argument Higgins threatened the proprietor, Al Cordray and Tony Pollock, bartender, with an automatic shotgun, firing two shots during a struggle with the men as they sought to disarm him in the street outside the club.

Higgins was taken into custody a block from the club by Undersheriff Lawrence Nieri and Deputy Sheriff George Krehl of Colma, after Mayor Lawson called Sheriff McGrath's office here at 7 o'clock last night and said a man was "shooting up the town."

The assistant police chief of Bayshore City, Jess Monahan, was at the scene, but the arrest was made by the sheriff's officers.

Higgins, after his arrest, made counter accusations against Cordray and his bartender. He alleged that Cordray fired half a dozen shots at him with an automatic revolver, and that Pollock slashed him with a knife earlier in the affray.

The ex-police chief displayed a severe cut on his left wrist.

Tuesday night's dispute climaxed a long-standing feud between Higgins and the present city administration, according to authorities.

Cordray declared Higgins came into the club at 6:40 p.m. and ordered a drink.

"Higgins was abusive," Cordray said. "He asked me, 'How's the mayor?' and said I had 'better get on the other side of the political fence' because 'Mayor Lawson's crowd is going to get dumped at the election April 12.'

"I argued politics with him, and Higgins picked up a beer bottle and

KEEP LOOKOUT WHEN BACKING

Accident records tell tragic stories of drivers who have made fatal mistakes in backing. Too many drivers fail to see if the way is clear behind before starting in reverse. A great deal of backing is done in and out of parking places. This operation is fraught with hazards.

Besides the safety of pedestrians, the driver must look out for passing traffic. Look to the rear on both sides before backing, and then when you are sure the way is clear, back very slowly. It may take a few seconds longer, the National Safety Council says, but it is time well spent. Remember, the big difference between safety and disaster is the driver—be on the lookout for danger.—San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission.

ANNUAL PICNIC IS TO BE HELD IN EARLY AUGUST

Daly City Merchants Association Gathering Decided On For Lovchen Garden

At a well attended meeting, at the City Hall, Wednesday evening of this week, the members of the Daly City Merchants Association selected the place and set the time for the annual picnic of 1938.

Heretofore these annual affairs have been held at Oak Cove Park in San Mateo County. However, the consensus of opinion of those present seemed to incline toward the idea that these grounds were too far removed from this city and not so accessible as is desirable.

On motion, made and carried, it was decided that the best place to hold the picnic for the association this summer would be at grounds close to Daly City and more easily accessible.

It was brought out that there is a site in close proximity to this city and easy to get to.

Considerable discussion finally brought the conclusion that the best place for holding this year's picnic would be at Lovchen Garden, on Hillside boulevard.

The members were told this grounds was the best equipped in this section of San Mateo County for staging a gathering of this kind. Consequently the garden was engaged for the affair.

The picnic will take place on Sunday, August 21, and prompises to be of the same elaborate and enjoyable nature as have all Daly City Merchants Associations in past years.

ATTEMPT TO BE MADE TO SECURE FARE EXTENSION

Daly City Merchants Association To Wait On Street Railway Officials For Better Service

The Daly City Merchants Association met in regular session at the City Hall, Wednesday evening of this week, with a goodly number of members present.

The princial matter of business transacted was with reference to an endeavor to secure the running of cars to the southern end of the city at one fare rate and also on a better schedule.

A motion was made by W. E. Pitschke that a committee of five be appointed to contact President Kahn of the Market Street Railway System and urge that company to route cars to the southern section of Daly City, and that only one fare be charged for the entire distance; and that the running of a sufficient number of cars to accommodate the traffic be operated to that point.

After considerable debate, in which it was pointed out that this method would result in a larger number of residents buying homes and moving to that section with a profit to the railway in increased fares. The motion was adopted.

The following committee was appointed: Messrs. Pitschke, Merrit, Williams, Peterson and Williamson.

This committee was instructed to attend the next meeting of the Daly City Council and request the naming by that body of a like committee to act in conjunction with the association committee.

Shoots Youth After Running Over Dog

When Walter Harp's dog was run over and killed by an automobile in Atlanta, Georgia, Wednesday of this week the canine's master and his brother, Marion, 24, accused the driver, who had stopped his car, of killing their pet. "Well, what about it?" asked the driver.

Drawing his gun he shot Marion in the chest, wounding him seriously, and speeded away.

Seat On Fire Board Won By Lawson Man

C. J. Quinn, incumbent, defeated E. Hamlin, 162 to 41, and was thereby re-elected to the board of fire commissioners of the Bayshore City fire district, at an election, Monday of this week. The term is for four years.

Inasmuch as Quinn is an ally of Mayor John P. Lawson's administration, which faces a test at the municipal election of April 12, his victory was held to be significant.

CHAMPIONSHIP EGG EATER OF TENNESSEE

The "egg eating champion of Tennessee," Robert Sauls, 200 pounder, was recovering today at Knoxville from the effects of his achievement. The championship was won by Mr. Saul by consuming five dozen eggs in half an hour. His opponent, Perry Corwin, 140 pound hill country resident, turned pale and relinquished all claim to the title after gulping down only 42 eggs.

RAISE UNLIKELY FOR SAN MATEO COUNTY OFFICES

Board Decides Against Pleas For General Revision Of Salaries Of Department Employes

It developed, Wednesday of this week, at Redwood City, that eight elective officials are not going to get the substantial salary raises they asked for last week. Five may receive increases of $100 a month, the rest will have to be content with their present paychecks.

It was learned after an executive session of the board of supervisors, late Tuesday of this week, that survey of the salary schedules will be ostponer until next January because there is not sufficient time for the study before the next budget deadline. It means that, with few excetions, rank and file employes will not get the pay boosts they requested. Final decision will be made Tuesday of next week, at 9 a.m., when the board confers again.

This survey had been recommended earlier by County Executive Rolison.

Although the survey could be completed in 30 days, salaries of elective officers must be set April 19, Rolison said later, and it would take considerable time for the board to analyze the survey, once presented.

Several departments had asked in-

County Officials Deny Preference

At the session of the Board of Supervisors, Tuesday of this week, in Redwood City, charges were aired by Brisbane local of the Workers Alliance that the welfare division of the county was "in collusion" with the WPA and State Relief administration to keep employables off work relief rolls.

Dr. Charles C. Gans, chief of the social and health welfare divisions of San Mateo County, was, this week, working out "an appropriate" answer to the charges of the Brisbane local.

During the meeting of the Board of Supervisors, Beer commented as follows: "I think there is a misunderstanding. The county has nothing to do with declaring persons on relief unemployables."

SUPERVISORS ASKED TO PRESS COW PALACE AID

Want Board To Withhold Money For Exhibit If Demands Are Not Granted

The San Mateo County Board of Supervisors were urged, early this week, by Charles H. Van Sooy, president of the San Mateo-San Francisco Agricultural District, to "put the pressure" on the Golden Gate International Exposition.

Sooy asked the supervisors to withhold payment of $46,000 for a San Mateo County exhibit unless the exposition carries out its agreement to appropriate the half million dollars for the "cow palace" and hold the world's fair livestock show there.

The board will be asked to adopt a resolution to this effect and at the same time calling upon Governor Frank Merriam to use his influence in behalf of the Visitacion Valley project at next Tuesday's special meeting. There was a possibility that they would be asked to hold a special session before then.

Sooy saw a "fighting chance" to bring the livestock show to San Mateo County after the San Francisco Board of Supervisors joined the fight for the cow palace at yesterday's session.

Although postponing action until Monday on a resolution requesting Governor Merriam to intercede with

Snowfall Record Set Near Summit

From Sacramento it was reported, Wednesday of this week, that snowfall at Norden, near the summit of the Sierra range, during the 1937-1938 winter season established a new record.

Eight hundred and one inches of snow was registered to that date by the weather bureau.

RECORD URGES THE ELECTION OF SELMI, SUNDERMANN AND TWESTEN

In the interests of good government and civic stability and that the progress of Daly City may not be retarded, the Daly City Record sincerely believes that the election of the three incumbent councilmen—Selmi, Sundermann and Twesten—should be made an overwhelming victory at the election of next Tuesday, April 12.

The Record strongly urges all citizens to go to the polls on that day and cast their ballots for the three men above named and also to lend all possible aid to accomplish their return to the offices which they have so ably and creditably filled for several years past.

had a sincere wish to serve his comfields and other developments will be completed as soon as funds are available. In December of last year the city bought a playground site at the corner of Brunswick and Acton streets, in the Crocker Tract. This site has been graded, trees have been planted and further improvements are scheduled for the near future.

STREETS

During the past two years four major street improvements have been made in Daly City. San Jose avenue has been widened and made into a fast and beautiful boulevard. Hillcrest drive between Mission street and Mission circle has been widened to eliminate a traffic hazard and offer greater parking facilities. To complete a through street from Mission to Junipero Serra boulevard, Westlake avenue was graded and paved across the railroad tracks. Bids were recently let for permanent street work on the upper portion of Templeton avenue.

Seeing Eye Dog Visits School

Roy De Vencenzi, high eighth grade student spontaneously submitted the following report after the student boys of his school had enjoyed an interesting talk given by Miss Hilda Isles, who was sponsored to speak by the Latham Foundation for the Promotion of Humane Education. Roy's report follows:

"On Monday morning of this week, the classes of the Woodrow Wilson Elementary School were visited by Miss Hilda Isles, a blind girl. Although blind, Miss Isles has a 'seeing eye', in the person of Erna, an educatedp 'seeing eye' police dog.

Erna was born in Beve, Switzerland, and educated until she was a year old. At that time she was sent to Morristown, New Jersey, where her education was completed under an expert trainer. Later Erna was sent to Berkeley, where she was further educated to guide blind people. Erna is color blind and has only 60 per cent human sight. She knows when danger is approaching and stands along side her mistress to protect her. Thus quotes Miss Isles: 'Erna was not given to me, I was given to Erna.

Although I am blind, I do almost everything I like to do. I go to plays, I type, I read, tell time, and the thing I like to do most is to roller skate.' When the classes heard her mention that she enjoyed roller skating they were deeply interested. She explained that she leaves Erna home when she goes skating for fear Erna might pull her down.

Miss Isles also told and explained to the class how she tells time. She possesses a special designed watch to tell time. When she wishes to know the time she simply opens the crystal and puts the index finger on the hands of the watch. Miss Isles definitely made the student body feel that "animals are friends."

Films On Alaska At W. W. School

Another of the series of motion pictures that were selected by Miss M. Vireno to be shown at the Woodrow Wilson Elementary School was a most interesting picture on Alaska. The picture was shown on March 30, the day that Wm. H. Seward (Secretary of State during Lincoln's administration) had purchased Alaska from Russia in 1867, for the sum of $7,200,000.

The purpose of the purchase was to free North America from the claims of one more European country. Opponents of the purchase called Alaska a worthless iceberg, but it has since proved rich in treasure.

DALY CITY LIONS WIN TWO GAMES

Last week the Daly City Lions whipped the Skull Club, 14 to 2, behind Kelly's three hit pitching. He never got himself in a hole, pitching a good game all the way. Griffin homed for the winners in the fourth inning of the first game. Buckley had a big day at bat(getting three singles and a double with the bags loaded in the seventh.

In the second games the Daly City Lions defeated the National Athletic Club, 5 to 3. Berg pitched for the Lions, striking out seven batters and pitching good ball and was able to get out of a hole whenever he got into one. The Lions scored three in the first and two in the second inning, and coasted in the rest of the way. The game was called at the end of the fifth on account of the time limit.

MARIONETTES AT YOUTH FESTIVAL

A marionette show has been secured for the festival and we feel sure that it will be enjoyed by a goodly number of our patrons. We were indeed fortunate to get this added attraction. Just now there is a craze for puppet shows sweeping the country. Many people are taking it up as a hobby and are thereby having a lot of good clean enjoyment out of pulling strings to direct the miniature stage folk in their amusing antics.

No Respect Even For Policemen

In Fort Worth, Texas, during a policeman's ball, Wednesday evening of this week, thieves stole two coats and two hats from automobiles, while their owners were dancing at the annual affair.

The culprits showed no resepct for the policemen's night off.

WOODSIDE MAN ON RESERVE BOARD

Early in the week St. George Holden of Woodside, San Mateo County, was apointed by the federal reserve board a class C director of the San Francisco Federal Reserve bank. He will serve until December 31, 1940.

MARY HILL LEADS IN QUEEN RACE

Girl Scout Mary Hill is in the lead with 1740 votes. Her nearest opponent is Sophie Sikiotis with 410. Several other girls are close behind Sophie so there is a close race for the six next largest vote getters who will be awarded special prizes and honors. However, there is quite a while to go yet and a great many votes are being held back for a surprise—so no one will really know who is to be queen until the final count on Saturday morning, April 23.

Renewed activity is on in token selling now and will continue until the time of the festival.

Boy Scouts Enjoy Hamburger Sizzle

Last Saturday evening several boys under the leadership of Mr. Straughan, went to the Willows and had a sort of open air picnic. The main item on the menu was broiled hamburgers. A new sizzler was tried out which worked fine. It was constructed from two shortening can lids hinged together so as to form double plate affair. A long wire handle was fastened to it and it was only necessary to put in the patted meat and just sizzle away. Before turning over for cooking on the other side, the juice was drained out on the bun. If we do say so ourselves, the sizzler is a humdinger!

DALY CITY FOLKS AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Adeline Cullum and daughter Joyce of North Park avenue, Mrs. Dorothea Brush and son Billy of Hillcrest drive and Mrs. Myrtle Domenici and daughter Grace Marie of Peoria street were among the guests at a party given, Saturday afternoon of last week, by Mrs. F. Giomi of Courtland avenue, in San Francihco, in honor of the second birthday of her daughter Geraldine.

tried to hit me on the head. He also grabbed me by the throat. Pollock, who was off duty, pulled Higgins off and knocked him to the floor. He then tried to hit Pollock with a chair."

Cordray said Higgins told them he was going home to "get my gun; I'll be back."

The proprietor said Higgins was back in five minutes. Cordray and Pollock met him outside. As he got out of his machine they noticed his shotgun. They sought to disarm him and Higgins fired two shots without inflicting any bodily injury.

The version of the affair given by Higgins differed considerably from that of the tavern proprietor.

The ex-chief claimed that Cordray chased him out of his place with a pistol at the height of the political argument, and fired six shots at him as he scrambled into his machine.

Last week the former chief made front page news when he accused the Bayshore mayor and two members of the council with receiving, and not accounting for, a check for $2000 presented to the city by the Bayshore dog track in 1934 for relief purposes. He also claimed the councilmen contracted with themselves to lease the Bayshore Voters league hall as a city hall. Mayor Lawson denounced the charge as a political plot to discredit the administration on eve of the election.

HOUSEWIVES WILL EAT AT KNOWLES

The members of the Experienced Housewife Club will meet with Mrs. Maude Pitschke at the new address, 139 Knowles avenue, Monday of next Week, April 11.

Maintaining a booth at the Festival of Youth will be the princial order of business.

Scout Troop No. 141 And Cub Pack 141

Our last regular troop meeting was well attended as only two members were absent. The patrols reported some progress on projects for the Festival of Youth. The waterdog patrol met at the home of Assistant Patrol Leader, Edward McIntosh and finished up a batch of willow baskets and also a nice cake which Mack's mother so kindly invited us to sink our teeth into. A reading of the skit: "Breakfast in Camp" was part of the meeting and it promises to be something good if the fine cooperative sirit continues in our patrol. Every member was present which speaks well for our group.

The Indian Patrol hasn't really gotten warmed up yet, but we expect to hear war whoops any minute now. They have a skit to put on at the festival entitled: "Professor Strong, muscle maker." It has some hilarious comedy in it and will give our troop "Bergen and McCarthy" (Richard King and Elden Przbarowski) a chance to do their stuff.

On last Friday some scouts and cubs under the direction of Mr. Straughan did quite a lot of cleaning at the Vista Grande School, where the festival is to be held. This week the other half will be completed. Work has already begun on the booths and other preparations.

munity. He expressed that desire by joining the local fire department.

Qualities of ability, efficiency and leadership were displayed by Fireman Twesten. He became captain of Company No. 2, then fire commissioner and finally president of the Daly City Veteran Firemen's Association.

As proprietor of the Spring Valley Market, Mr. Twesten has become an outstanding business success in this community. He always has shown a spirit of friendly co-operation with other business and professional people and has served several years as treasurer of the Daly City Merchants Association.

That he was interested in education and affairs of local public schools was proven by Mr. Twesten's appointment to the office of high school trustee, and he served well in that capacity.

Because of his broad background of experience in the Daly City Fire Department, Mr. Twesten now ably serves as chairman of the Fire Committee of the Daly City Board of Councilmen.

Councilman Julius Twesten is a loveable character, who has the confidence of every man, woman and child in Daly City. Efficiency and honesty are his slogans.

CROWDS GROW AS CITY LEADERS AID RECREATION

Activities Of Project Draw Large Number Of Participants And Spectators

With the interest growing daily the recreation leaders of the Daly City WPA Recration Project find a steadily increasing crowd of boys and girls enjoying the facilities provided by the City of Daly City.

The initial attendance in the seven centers now operated totaled 336. This has increased to the point where more than 1200 boys, girls and adults are enjoying the daily games or taking part in the activities, either as players or spectators.

The program of recreation ranges from hop-scotch to plug-casting; from checkers to quilt-making; and from whittling to baseball. All ages from 6 to 76 are enjoying these varied activities, which to date have barely scratched the surface possibilities of the recreation program.

Japanese Capture Russian Aviator

First foreign aviator to be captured by the Japanese in the current Sino-Japanese war is shown in photo with two of his captors behind the Nipponese lines. The prisoner, Michail Andreivitch Domnin, a Russian, was flying a soviet bombing plane when shot down after an aerial combat with Japanese planes near Wuhu. His two companions, a Chinese and an Occidental, were killed in the crash, but he escaped death by bailing out of the plane with a parachute.

BILL IS SIGNED INSURING AID FOR FIESTA BY STATE

Fixes Schedule Of Premium Returns For County And District Fairs

An additional $5000 in state funds for the San Mateo County fiesta was assured today with Governor Frank Merriam signing an assembly bill fixing a schedule of premium returns for county and district fairs.

As a seven-year enterprise, the fiesta is eligible, under the bill, to offer $10,600 in premiums and receive in return from the state $21,200 on a two-for-one basis. Last year's fiesta received $16,800 from the state.

The bill, effective immediately, limits first year fairs to a premium of $6000 with an annual 10 per cent increase.

Fiesta Commissions are attending a conference of fair and state finance department officials being held in Sacramento today and Saturday to discuss a uniform premium schedule in connection with the new bill. The proposal would fix a maximum premiums which could be offered for individual exhibits, Lipman said.

Progress Sought By First Lady

It has been reported that Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt has recently been taking voice lessons to correct speaking faults she has recognized for a long time.

The lessons, learned in New York, had no connection with her recent lecture tour. From time to time the President's wife has received hints for improving her delivery from radio experts with whom she worked, but these are the first formal coachings she has had.

Perfection lies ever ahead, even for our First Lady.

JEFF HIGH SCHOOL MAGAZINE SUCCESS

Jefferson Union High School's literary magazine, the Scroll, proved to be such a big success last year that another one was planned for this Spring semester. The magazine was placed on sale, Wednesday of this week.

The many interesting essays, poems, short stories and reviews were contributed voluntarily by the students of Jefferson and are entirely original. The mimeographing was done by the commercoial classes, under the direction of Miss Edna Smith. The art work, under the guidance of Miss Effie Potter, was a contribution of the art class.

Although this edition of the Scroll contains more pages than the previous one, the price has been kept down.

Since The Scroll is entirely a student magazine, it is not only composed of their work, but is planned, edited and arranged by them. Members of the staff are as follows: Editor, Eleanor Price; associate editor, Leon Fletcher; business manager, Patsy O'Brien; publicity, Helen Day; short stories, Jeanne Maxwell; essays, Alice Nolan; poetry, Joe Nicoletti; reviews, Edyth Paganini; art editor, Irene Cain; typists, Melba Warren, Ernest Giomi and Eleanor Chapin.

ENJOY THEATER

A group of friends enjoyed a theater party at the Alcazar, Saturday evening of last week, to witness the comedy, "Me, Third."

Following the show the group motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Domenici on Peoria street, where tasty refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Mal Tacchi, Mr. and Mrs. G. Cullum, Mr. and Mrs. W. Brush and Mr. and Mrs. D. Curtin.

Marcele Bland of Montreal, Can., explained to police that the only reason his 18 year old son pulled a false fire alarm was so he would be jailed and escape working on their farm.

JEFF WINS OVER REDWOOD TEAM IN HARD GAME

Count Deadlocked When Winning Marker Is Scored In Last Inning

With the score deadlocked 7-7 in the last inning and Jefferson at bat, Charles Murray drove a hard line drive into left center-field which was fumbled by the centerfielder. Murray stopped at third base which put him in position to score the winning run. With the run which would mean the end of the game on third, the Sequoia nine closed in for a possible squeeze play. Tony Compagno, next at bat, then hit a long fly into left field which was caught but scored Murray, and thus ended the peninsula's first P. A. L. game in Jefferson's favor.

All the boys on the Jeff ball team looked good both at bat and on the field against the Cherokee nine. The team collected ten hits against the Sequoia hurler. If the team continues to meet oncoming foes in their form of last Thursday, they will be serious contenders for the league championship.

This is the record for the Jefferson boys:

TALE O' THE TOWN

By Joseph Straughan

MIND READING (?)

A certain merchant of our town has a knack of knowing what his customers want. For instance, when you go into his establishment he does not greet you with the customary worn out and nerve grating: "Yes-sir!" He smilingly asks how much you would like of some certain article, and nine times out of ten he will be right; (the score has been 100 per cent in my case).

I longed to learn his secret and tried to throw him off by once asking for what I didn't want. He hesitated, then I weakened and confessed my ruse.

"Oh, I knew what you wanted to buy," he taunted me good naturedly.

"How do you do it?" I demanded.

"It's just a matter of observation," he began; then another customer engaged his attention and I did my level best to discover his technique.

"I've got it!" I mused to myself, and departed.

I went back for something more before I actually needed it to see if I was really right in my conclusion. My theory was that he would follow the customer's eye and whatever was looked at most longingly was the article wanted. I wanted hamburger so I looked at pork sausage. To my surprise, he asked in his smiling way how much hamburger I would have. I felt cheaper than the dime I was going to give him. "Don't you see I'm looking at sausage?" I half heartedly reproved him.

"Sure, mine friend, but you're not ordinarily cross-eyed and you were not very enthusiastic about pork sausage anyway."

I gave up and decided to learn more about psychology or something.

The fire department of Portland, Mich., a town of 2000 population, hasn't made a run in five months, and its fire loss for the year is less than $200.

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM OUR CONGRESSMAN
JOHN J. McGRATH

Trade Agreements—Both old line and New Deal economists seem agreed on one thing. In order for this country and other countries, to enjoy normal recovery and keep a period of prosperity, it is necessary that surplus capital and surplus goods must be permitted to flow from the surplus nations to industrially backward nations and to those nations that have raw material shortages. In an effort to revive this flow of capital and trade, the trade agreement program is being worked on by Cordell Hull, Secretary of State.

Mexican Affair—The expropriation of the Mexican Government of $450,000,000 worth of oil properties belonging to seventeen British and American companies has added more trouble to the United States Department of State. After stating that these companies could not comply with a Mexican Labor Board order that an increase of $40,000,000 be made in wages of oil workers, and other demands for short hours, long vacations, free medical service and social insurance, the properties were taken over by the government. Just what the United States will do has not been revealed, but "serious concern" was expressed by Secretary Hull over the situation.

Air Policing—Under the new program to check fulfillment of AAA crop control, farmers will be checked from the air. Contracts have been let so far for the photographing of 108,854 square miles by air. An additional 300,000 to 400,000 square miles will be photographed in this same manner if suitable bids are obtainable.

Adult Education—In Congress, a bill authorizing that the President spend federal money on a matching basis with funds put up by states and local governmental bodies for adult education in evening colleges and evening high schools, has been introduced.

Aid For Those Over 45—The Labor Department is supervising a program to solve the problem of aiding men and women over 45 to get jobs. Massachusetts, at present, is the only state that has taken steps to prevent discriminaion against older workers.

Rights To Workers—Senator Wagner of New York asked the Senate Labor Committee to approve his bill requiring all firms obtaining government contracts, loans or grants, to guarantee collective bargaining rights to their workers.

Housing — Since the amended National Housing Act was signed by the President on February 3, more than one hundred million dollars of new business has been recorded by the FHA. New peaks have been reached by business for three successive weeks with seven-tenths of the mortgages submitted for approval, estimated as representing proposed new construction.

Restoration Of Purchasing Power —Representative Beiter of New York introduced a bill which would provide for the reduction of unemployment and the restoration of purchasing power through the construction of useful public works and the encouragement of long-range planning in this field. $75,000,000 would be required for allotments to executive departments and establishments in the executive branch of the United States Government for construction on federal projects, and for making loans for useful construction projects to states and agencies, municipalities, school districts, special taxing districts, and other public corporations, to be made available as follows: For the calendar year 1938, $450,000,000; for the calendar year 1939, $200,000,000; and for the calendar year 1940, $100,000,000.

Petroleum—Fifty per cent more petroleum was imported by Japan from this country last year than in 1936. Expanded exports to Canada and France, as well as to other nations, put American petroleum exports at a new high, one-third greater than in 1936.

Yellow Fever Vaccine—In actual application in South America, a new vaccine against yellow fever has proved effective. The Rockefeller foundation announces that development of the vaccine was achieved as a result of a series of experiments which began in 1931.

Civil Service Information — Absolutely free to anyone is information on Civil Service. All that is necessary is that inquiries be addressed to the secretary of the United States Civil Service Board at any first class or second class post office in the United States; to the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C.; or to my office. The Commission, on request, will place the inquirer's name on a mailing list and he will receive prompt information of projected examinations. A warning has been issued by the Civil Service Commission to everyone not to be misled by promises or claims of so-called civil service schools. No such schools have any advance information of examinations, influence in procuring federal employment or any authorization to give civil service examinations.

Moving Day Seems To Miss Nobody

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pitschke, formerly of 416 Irvington street, are now comfortably settled in their new home at 139 Knowles avenue. Murphy, Patsy, Reilly and Connie, the four feline pals, are quite satisfied, too. The hills, the ocean, Lake Merced and the golf course appear only a few skips away to the foursome, and they seem to be planning a short hike some day soon.

OBSERVATIONS OF GOINGS ON IN NATION CAPITAL

When You Drink Don't Drive —When You Drive Don't Drink—A Good Thing To Remember

(By Hart Goodrich)

No matter what one may think to the contrary, scientific tests have proved conclusively that there is a striking drop in intelligence after even just a couple of drinks of some intoxicant.

Not long ago New York papers carried an account of four reporters who took a public driving test after a few drinks and discovered that their "braking reaction time" was speeded up by the stimulant. Two drinks definitely lower a driver's efficiency, in spite of the fact that his braking reaction time may, in many cases, be speeded up temporarily. But this is only one factor in driving: Responses of eye and brain, co-ordination of the arms and legs, mental attention and emotional balance—all of these are far more important.

Careful tests have been made by Dr. W. R. Miles of Yale University with such a harmless activity as typing. For two hours after a small shot of whiskey, the speed of the subject's typing decreased only two per cent, but the mistakes made increased 39 per cent. When they increased the drink by 50 per cent the typing speed dropped only four per cent, but the error ratio rose to 72 per cent. In other words, when you give a drinker something to do which calls for all his faculties he isn't so hot, no matter what he may think about it!

Doctors Heise and Halporn of Uniontown Hospital, in Pennsylvania, took actual driving tests on a secluded highway. They put up "barricades" of various shapes and sizes along the road, built of flimsey cardboard boxes; they rigged up pistols under the car attached to the brake pedal to measure various reaction times.

Putting their subjects through their paces in this fashion, the experimenters found plenty of things wrong with drivers "who had been drinking." Remember that these drivers weren't really drunk; all but one passed the standard police station sobriety tests. The drop in intelligence was especially apparent in the drinker's increasing inability to analyze a situation and see where he was wrong. Although the reaction time on the average was "moderately increased," all were making important driving errors such as stepping on the gas accidentally, jamming on the brakes for no reason, driving into the barricade of boxes or wandering off the road.

In view of these facts, it becomes more obvious that the New York test on the reporters was inadequate, at best.

The situation of drinking and driving continues to grow worse, mainly because the general public hasn't grasped the truth that it is dangerous to drive after drinking.

A recent survey of 102 cities by the United States Conference of Mayors showed that in only 26 were physicians used to determine the effects of alcohol on suspected drivers—and in only a couple, like Cincinnati and San Francsico, were any really scientific tests employed.

What's to be done? Three things:

First, the public must be "sold" the truth that a few drinks make any driver a dangerous driver.

Second, we've got to stop being so tolerant with the drunken drivers who get caught.

Third, we must arrive at some accepted standard for determining when a driver is dangerously under the influence of liquor; a standard that will hold up in court.

Advice To Citizens Who Want Progress

(By George McLeod)

Daly City isn't young, today it's in its prime;
Yet today, like yesterday, it gets musical at election time.
We should run our election like one who knows,
And send these would-be Councilmen to Major Bowes;
When they finish "Playing the Fiddle," singing the "same old song,"
We should do the same as he—"Give them the gong."
On April 12 go to the polls with this in mind:
You can't find better men than the Selmi - Sundermann - Twesten kind!
Daly City wants men, not men who want Daly City!

Mistress: "Did you water the rubber plant?"

Maid: "Why, ma'am, I thought it was waterproof."

his commission in behalf of the half million dollar allocation to complete the Visitacion Valley plant, the San Francisco supervisors warned both the exposition commission and the exposition company to do nothing further about holding the 1939 stock show until the board can look more thoroughly into the matter.

Action was postponed at this week's session when the supervisors were informed that the state exposition committee had put over its next meeting a week.

Belief that the company and the commission would "accede" to the supervisors' request was expressed by Frank Y. McLaughlin, a member of both bodies.

Thus, it is expected that, although the commission has rejected the agricultural district's plea for the $500,000 and voted to hold the show on Treasure Island, nothing will be done until next week.

Meanwhile another airing of the controversy is scheduled at a public hearing before the board's exposition affairs committee late this week.

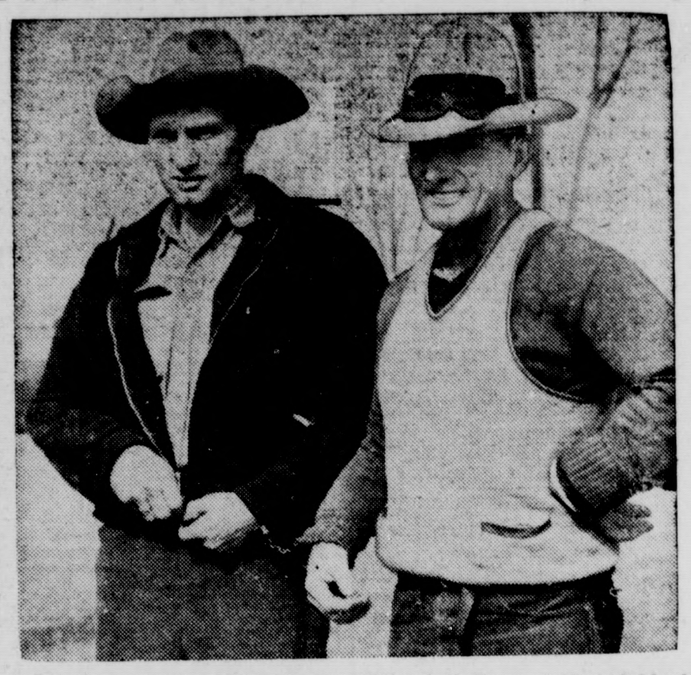
Hunt California Bride In Nevada Murder Mystery



Named by Buck Biamont in an alleged confession, Mrs. Marian Gilbert (left), socialite of Menlo Park, Cal., is the object of an intense search in Nevada. Biamont is alleged to have declared that Mrs. Gilbert slew her husband, William J. Gilbert, 28, while he slept, at Centerville, Nev. Biamont was said to have charged that Carl Ramset, 51, actually plotted the slaying and said that he was the secret sweetheart of the young bride. Mrs. Gilbert vanished during a fierce blizzard in February, according to Biamont's story. Youis A. Oneal, prominent attorney, for whom Mrs. Gilbert, an experienced horsewoman, had ridden at horse shows, declared "I completely discredit Biamont's attempts to place the blame for Gilbert's murder on Marian." Biamont (left) and Ramset are shown handcuffed. Both are being held without bail.

IN APOLOGY

On page seven of last week's issue, we "pulled a boner" and heavy heavy hangs over the copy reader's head. The title of the first article in column six of page seven, should have read "Tender Bride To Be a Shower," as Mr. Stork was not a guest at this party.

Please pardon our error, won't you, please, letting us atone by giving an extra special writeup for the wedding in May.

creases for their deputies, and labor circles have agitated for pay increases to Community Hospital workers in the lower brackets.

Five of the six officials in the $3500-a-year bracket asked for $700 raises last week. They were the county clerk, controller, recorder, treasurer and county school superintendent. The coroner was the only one in this salary class who did not request a boost. The district attorney asked that his salary be raised from $4800 to $5400. The assessor wanted his raised from $4000 to $4800. The colector sought a boost from $4000 to $4500.

Salaries adopted on April 19 will be paid the elective officials during the four-year terms beginning the first Monday in January, 1939. Charter law requires that the salaries be fixed 90 days before the August primary election, for the ensuing terms of office. Hence, the officials will not have another chance to obtain increases until 1942.

Salaries of deputies and employes are fixed from year to year, and their budgets will be considered later.

Cited for debt, James Corory of Northampton, Eng., declared that he was the father of 30 children, of whom 29 were girls.

Myrna Loy, Tone, Rosalind Russell Score In Comedy

In today's mad race of modernity, the marital "triangle" has been pushed into limbo and in its place rises the matrimonial "rectangle" in the fast stepping comedy-drama "Man Proof," presented at the Daly City Theater, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

With Myrna Loy, forming the quartet of principals, are Franchot Tone, Rosalind Russell and Walter Pidgeon.

Miss Loy is a young artist disillusioned in love. Miss Russell is a wealthy socialite. Franchot Tone is a newspaper cartoonist and Walter Pidgeon is a social climber.

Miss Loy loves Pidgeon, but he marries Miss Russell. Tone loves Miss Loy, but he keeps it to himself. Miss Loy is determined to separate the newlyweds and marry Pidgeon herself. While they are away on their honeymoon, she temporarily forgets Pidgeon and remains "wedded" only to her art. Tone, idolizing Miss Loy, marks time.

The honeymooners return and Miss Loy's waning spark of love for Pidgeon is rekindled. They have lots of fun together at the fights and in night clubs, until the wife finds the husband in Miss Loy's rooms. Yet it ils not an "irate wife" scene. They sit down and talk it over, friendly like. The wife offers a divorce to the husband. He doesn't want to lose his job and declines the divorce, forgetting Miss Loy to return to his wife. Miss Loy realizes her mistake. She and Tone pledge themselves to remain friends—but her mother knows it is love.

PRETENDING SHE'S "MAN PROOF"

Myrna Loy does her darndest to pretend that she's "Man Proof" in the picture of that name shown on the Daly City screen, Sunday, but Franchot Tone and Walter Pidgeon soon disillusion the star of any such idea. Rosalind Russell also plays an important part in the proceedings of the new romantic comedy.

A marriage license was issued in San Francisco to John S. Winn, 27, of Miriam street, and Isabelle A. Berg, 18, of Daly City.

"Whatcha doing today?" said Mrs. A. to Mrs. B. during the course of a social telephone call. "I'm washing the baby clothes," said Mrs. B. And right there the operator cut in and said, "I'm ringing 'em — Wall Street Journal.
